COVID has been difficult for many youth & young adults. Isolation had a negative impact on youth, causing mental health challenges. Unfortunately, suicide rates have been increasing. We want to create a safe and open space to discuss this important topic related to youth and young adults. Speaker Pastor Patrick E. Jacques is currently finishing up a Ph.D. from Fuller Theological Seminary in clinical psychology. There will be a sermon in the morning and an open dialogue on mental health. Primarily, we will be focusing on the power of "Mental Mentorship." Zoom Meeting ID: 977 7221 5781 Passcode: 274945

MINISTERIAL INTERN OPPORTUNITY

Alberta Student Ministerial Interns – (Job Requisition 5377) The Alberta Student Ministerial Internship Program provides meaningful engagement and learning designed to increase an intern's knowledge and insight of the role Cabinet Ministers undertake to lead the Government of Alberta. You will have the opportunity to learn how your provincial government works and gain an understanding of public policy development activities through on-the-job training and by interacting with staff from many different areas of government. In this four-month summer internship position, you will work with Minister's office staff to support the Minister with his/her daily activities. You will use your strong interpersonal, research, verbal and written communication skills, as you attend events, and assist with briefings, communications, and scheduling. Your problem solving skills will be put to the test as you research, suggest options and think through issues when responding to action requests and working on special projects. The successful candidates will also have the following competencies:

Drive for Results:

Strong communications skills, both written and verbal
Ability to generate meaningful content for social media platforms would be beneficial

Building Collaborative Environments:

Ability to work collaboratively with team members and interact effectively with external stakeholders

Agility:

Ability to anticipate, assess, and readily adapt to changing priorities, maintain resilience in times of uncertainty and effectively work in a changing environment

Qualifications:

You are a post-secondary student who has completed at least two year of a program.

A demonstrated interest in government or political processes through related work, co-op or volunteer experiences would be an asset.

Closing Date: March 1, 2021

Location: Edmonton, Calgary
