LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY, SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

Representative Marlise Perry will be on campus on Thursday, October 1. If you are pursuing a career in dentistry, please sign up for an appointment at Bonita Campbell's office (S117). If you want to hear more about a career in dentistry, she will host a light supper with an information meeting at 6 pm in S107.

RALPH WALDO EMERSON

“Write it on your heart
that every day is the best day in the year.
He is rich who owns the day, and no one owns the day
who allows it to be invaded with fret and anxiety.

Finish every day and be done with it.
You have done what you could.
Some blunders and absurdities, no doubt crept in.
Forget them as soon as you can, tomorrow is a new day;
begin it well and serenely, with too high a spirit
to be cumbered with your old nonsense.

This new day is too dear,
with its hopes and invitations,
to waste a moment on the yesterdays.”

String Theory Collective: Ayres and Verses (early music ensemble)

Sunday, October 4, 2026 at 4:00 p.m.

Administration Building Auditorium • Burman University

String Theory Collective is a string-based ensemble from Calgary performing Early Music on historical instruments. Known for its innovative and memorable artistic experiences, the Collective explores Early Music in the context of today's musical and cultural landscape. This program features music alongside the evocative nature poetry of Calgarian Paul Grindlay, and includes two special young guests who are rising stars on the Early Music scene.

Orontes Guitarists (fusion music ensemble)

Sunday, November 23, 2025 at 4:00 pm

Administration Building Auditorium • Burman University

This unique guitar ensemble was founded in Damascus, Syria, in 2015. Known for its distinctive fusion of classical and Middle Eastern music, the ensemble has toured extensively across Syria, Lebanon and Canada. The Orontes Guitarists bring a unique voice to the classical guitar world and Canadian music scene, as they reimagine traditional music with passion and precision.

Benjamin Novey, lute (early music soloist)

Sunday, February 7, 2027 at 4:00 p.m.

Administration Building Auditorium • Burman University

Lutenist Benjamin Narvey is renowned for his engaging and versatile performances on 16th- through 18th-century historical plucked instruments including the renaissance and baroque lutes, baroque guitar, and Italian, French, German and English theorboes. A native of Montreal, Benjamin performs throughout North America and Europe. Immerse yourself in truly enchanting and mesmerizing music from many Early Music repertoires.

Solidaridad Tango (world music: tango orchestral ensemble)

Sunday, March 14, 2026 at 4:00 p.m.

Administration Building Auditorium • Burman University

This exciting and intriguing combination of vocals, violin, bass, bandoneon and piano will captivate you with its fusion of musical sounds. Founded in 2021, the ensemble's musicians are trained in historical tango performance practice and are proud to present new music by women tango composers from around the world. The ensemble has played to sold-out performances, from Toronto to New York and Buenos Aires. Join us for a soulful and energetic evening!
